REPORT NO.

1. Mme Pridi (Nang Poolasuk Banomyong) has been asked by the defense lawyers in the case of the King's death to pay them 200,000 baht for expenses incurred.
2. Mme Pridi has insufficient funds to cover this claim, but she does have enough real property. Before attempting to convert this property to cash, Mme Pridi is trying to locate her husband to determine whether he can send her the funds or whether he will agree to the disposal of the property and accept the resulting adverse publicity. She believes that Pridi is in China.
3. Mme Pridi is not worried about her husband's safety. She has been informed that he is being cared for by friends in China. This information was given to her recently by a friend who returned from China.
